Centre for the Study of Existential Risk, 16 Mill Lane, Cambridge, CB2 1SB, United Kingdom

Postdoctoral Research Associate, Centre for the Study of Existential Risk, University of Cambridge, UK.

College Research Associate, King's College, University of Cambridge, UK.

Research statement: I work on the global governance of AI technology. My aim is to help inform robust and adaptive regulatory strategies for this and other emerging technologies. To that end, my research broadly focuses on (1) the design of flexible global regime complexes and institutions for AI; (2) the effects of AI tools on the norms and processes of international law itself; and (3) the legal basis and political conditions for the international control or nonproliferation of destabilizing military AI systems.

Academic Experience

05 / 2021 – 07 / 2021 | Summer Research Fellow, Legal Priorities Project

10 / 2020 – present | Postdoctoral Research Associate, Centre for the Study of Existential Risk & Centre for the Future of Intelligence (University of Cambridge—Cambridge, UK)

- Research project mapping Longtermist AI Governance (LTAIG) theories of change
- Led a team on the submission of Evidence to the UK National Resilience Strategy (forthcoming).

10 / 2020 – present | College Research Associate (King's College, University of Cambridge).

09 / 2017 – 09 / 2020 | PhD Fellow, Centre for International Law and Governance (The University of Copenhagen, Faculty of Law—Copenhagen, Denmark)

- PhD Dissertation 'Artificial Intelligence Governance Under Change: Foundations, Facets, Frameworks' (link, PDF), under Prof. Hin-Yan Liu and Prof. Kristian Lauta. Defended on 21st of April, 2021, to a panel consisting of Prof. Mikael Rask Madsen, Lyria Bennett Moses, and Ingvild Bode.
- Prepared and taught MA-level course 'Artificial Intelligence and Legal Disruption'
- Prepared MA-level course 'Law and Policy for Global Catastrophic and Existential Threats'
- Fall 2018: research stay at Center for the Governance of AI (Future of Humanity Institute, University of Oxford).

01 / 2018 – 07 / 2020 | Research Affiliate, Center for the Governance of AI (University of Oxford).

05 / 2016 – 01 / 2018 | Researcher, Global Politics of Artificial Intelligence (GP-AI) Research Group, (Yale University & University of Oxford)

- Supported research projects of Dr. Allan Dafoe, including 'AI Governance: a Research Agenda', and syllabus for Yale University course on 'The Global Politics of Artificial Intelligence'.
- Coordinated a network of a dozen research assistants towards conducting diverse research tasks.

05 / 2016 – 08 / 2018 | Junior Associate, Global Catastrophic Risks Institute (GCRI)

Education & Qualifications

04 / 2016 – 07 / 2016 | FullStack Web Development Bootcamp, (Le Wagon / B. Startup School Amsterdam)

09 / 2012 – 08 / 2013 | MSc in International Relations; graduated With Distinction (The University of Edinburgh—Edinburgh, UK)

08 / 2009 – 05 / 2012 | BA, Liberal Arts & Sciences; graduated Cum Laude (GPA of 3.6/4.0)
(University College Utrecht—Utrecht, The Netherlands)

Publication & dissemination profile

As of October 10th, 2021, I have published 16 papers (6 solo, 10 co-authored), and 5 reports and policy submissions, with 2 additional (1 solo, 1 co-authored) papers currently under review. Since 2017, my work has garnered 330 citations (h-index: 10; i10-index: 10).

Teaching:

University of Copenhagen:

- Artificial Intelligence and Legal Disruption (LLM)
- (Guest lectures) courses on Criminology, International Human Rights Law, Climate and Migration Law (LLM)

Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

- (Guest lectures) Big Data, Human Rights, and Human Security (LLM)

Asser Institute

- (Guest lectures) Winter Academy on Artificial Intelligence and International Law (LLM & PhD)

Student Supervision:

- June-August 2021: mentor at Cambridge Existential Risk Initiative (CERI) Summer Research Program, coached Arvo Munoz Moran for a game-theoretical approach to Transformative AI deployment scenarios.
- Fall 2020: Suhradip Maitra: independently coached a former student to rewrite an excellent course paper, and submit to AAAI/ACM Conference on AI, Ethics and Society, where he was consequently accepted as only undergraduate, and where he published in the conference proceedings on “Artificial Intelligence and Indigenous Perspectives: Protecting and Empowering Intelligent Human Beings.” (link).
- Summer 2019: (supervision of independent research, organized through FHI). Tobias Pulver: Shaping policy as experts: An epistemic community for (transformative) AI governance?
- Fall 2019: Masters Thesis. Mayra Futema: Discrimination in the rise of automated decisions - A critical appraisal of the GDPR legal responses to protect rights and freedoms. Grade 12/12.
- Spring 2019: Masters Thesis. Rahman Nayil: From Darkness to Light: An Analysis of Privacy Issues Relating to Algorithmic Black Box Medicine. Grade 12/12.
- Spring 2019: Masters Thesis. Laura Emily Christiansen: The Patentability of AI-made Inventions. Grade 12/12.
- Spring 2019: Masters Thesis. Edward St. John Maurice Treacy: International Law Regulation of Cyber Activities Below the Threshold of ‘Force’. Grade 12/12.

Work Experience:

10 / 2016 – 08 / 2017 | Analyst, NewForesight consultancy (Utrecht, The Netherlands)

Worked with diverse industry, civil society and government stakeholders on modelling of agricultural yields and supply chains, ensuring resilience, sustainability, and profitability for farmers.

05 / 2015 – 10 / 2016 | Freelance Analyst, The Hague Centre for Strategic Studies (HCSS)

Invited to contribute to major projects, e.g. (1) evaluation of urban security strategies; (2) scenario analysis of future trends & shocks in global food systems; (3) comparative sentiment analysis of national security & strategy foresight literatures; (4) report on non-kinetic military applications of AI systems.

06 / 2015 – 12 / 2015 | Trainee (Political and Security Affairs), The Netherlands Embassy in Beirut

12 / 2013 – 08 / 2014 | Assistant Strategic Analyst, The Hague Centre for Strategic Studies (HCSS)
